NEW ITEMS ON PAGES 10–11!

Look for this symbol  throughout the JWOD catalog indicating environmentally friendly products. Participants in the JWOD Program are reformulating and repackaging many products to include environmentally friendly materials, thus supporting Federal recycling initiatives. This catalog is printed on recycled paper with non-toxic inks.

This catalog contains selected products and services furnished by nonprofit agencies participating in the JWOD Program as of November 15, 1996. Other supplies and services are available. For a complete Procurement List, contact the Committee for Purchase From People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled at (703) 603-7740. The JWOD Catalog and Procurement List are available from the Committee in alternate formats.

The Javits-Wagner-O'Day (JWOD) Program was established in 1971 to increase employment and training opportunities for persons who are blind or have other severe disabilities. Its primary means of doing so is to direct Federal agencies to procure supplies and services furnished by nonprofit agencies employing such individuals. The JWOD Program, a mandatory source for Federal employees, is implemented through 41 CFR Chapter 51 and FAR Subpart 8.7.

While promoting a desirable social end, the JWOD Program represents good business. Benefits of the JWOD Program to the Federal Government and to the taxpayer include:

- ★ High quality supplies and services
- ★ On-time delivery
- ★ Reasonable prices
- ★ Reduction of paperwork and pre/post-award costs
- ★ Central points of contact that solve problems and facilitate action
- ★ Reduced disability payments and increased tax revenues

While the purpose of the Program is—first and foremost—to provide jobs and training for persons with severe disabilities, it does not represent a handout. To participate in the JWOD Program as Federal suppliers, nonprofit agencies employing people who are blind or who have other severe disabilities must demonstrate they can offer a quality supply or service at a reasonable price.

If this and certain other criteria are met, the supply or service is added to the JWOD Procurement List. The Government must then purchase the commodity or service from the qualified nonprofit agency(ies) indefinitely; as long as the item is needed and nonprofit agency performance and production meet applicable standards.

THE JWOD TEAM

The Committee for Purchase From People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled is responsible for administering the JWOD Program. An independent Federal agency consisting of 15 Presidentially appointed members and a small staff, the “Committee” determines which commodities and services are suitable for provision by nonprofit agencies and establishes the prices to be paid for them by the Government.

The Committee has designated two nonprofit organizations, National Industries for the Blind (NIB) and NISH (serving people with a range of disabilities), to provide associated State and private nonprofit agencies with technical and financial assistance. NIB and NISH coordinate many day-to-day activities of the JWOD Program, matching nonprofit agencies' capabilities with Federal requirements and serving as liaisons between the two.

Today, JWOD-participating nonprofit agencies function in most respects like any other contractor supplying goods and/or services to the marketplace. To participate in the JWOD Program, however, organizations must primarily serve people with severe disabilities. At least 75 percent of their direct labor hours must be performed by people who are legally blind or who have other severe disabilities. Many of these organizations provide a variety of rehabilitation services including daily living skills, mobility instruction, recreational programs, medical and vocational evaluations, and more.

JWOD work provides nonprofit agency employees with invaluable vocational opportunities not otherwise available, which result in additional income and increased independence. Two tremendous advantages realized are:

- ★ A stable work experience.
- ★ Attainment of marketable job skills.

Some employees are able to tackle new assignments at increasingly higher levels of difficulty through expanding their scope of experience and enhancing their abilities. This prepares them for a wider variety of jobs in competitive employment either within or outside of the nonprofit agency.

CAPABILITIES

The JWOD Program provides a wide range of supplies, with office supplies, sewn goods and cleaning products most prominent. Other categories include plastic, wood and metal items as well as electrical components, paints, and abrasives. Quality is a key concern. Many JWOD-associated industries have on-site quality control labs where raw materials, in-process components and finished goods are evaluated and tested to meet rigorous Government and commercial requirements.

Service capabilities are numerous and continue to grow at a significant pace. While services are tailored to the customer and are not generally chosen by browsing through a catalog, this publication contains several examples of the types of services provided under the JWOD Program. Customers interested in contracting for services should call the numbers listed on the back cover of this catalog for more information.

The JWOD Program is committed to developing, expanding and improving opportunities for vocational evaluation, training, employment and advancement of people who are blind or who have other severe disabilities so that all those who want to work have the chance to do so. To many, the JWOD Program is an example of Government operating at its best.
